Using Library Databases

Not sure where to start? You can find a full list of our 100+ databases sorted by subject at guides.norwich.edu/az.php

Best Places to Start Searching

- Academic Search Premier
  guides.norwich.edu/asp
- SAGE Premier
  guides.norwich.edu/sagepremier
- ProQuest Central Essentials
  guides.norwich.edu/pqcentral

Need Help with Your Research?

Librarians are standing by to help you whenever you get stuck with your research!

Email us 7 days a week at library@norwich.edu or book a one-on-one research appointment at https://norwich.libcal.com/appointments

What is Interlibrary Loan (ILL)?

Do you need a book or article that the Library doesn't have? No worries! We can borrow the materials you need from other libraries for FREE.

Go to guides.norwich.edu/ill for a step-by-step guide of how to place a request.
Helpful Features of Library Databases

The screenshot below of helpful database features is taken from Academic Search Premier, a great place to start on most research topics. Many Library databases offer the same features, so check around for them or ask a librarian for help (library@norwich.edu) if you can't find what you need!

Click here to access the journal article you need

The Email feature allows you to send yourself a convenient copy of the item

The Cite feature formats a citation for your item, but always double-check it before turning your project in.

Don't copy and paste the URL for the item from your internet browser - it will expire! Use the Permalink feature to create a permanent link to your item.